

Wexford Walking Trails Festival 2015

Friday, September 25th – Sunday, September 27th

Friday, Sept 25th	5pm - 6.30 pm	Guided walking tour of Gorey from a different perspective! Led by Cáit Branigan, Shamanic Practitioner. Meet at Library, Gorey Civic Centre at 5pm.
	7 pm	Welcome Reception in Ashdown Park Hotel, Gorey - Walking and Imagining - a talk by Garrett Keogh followed by conversation and not-so-deep thoughts on walks and walking - over a glass of wine.
Saturday Sept 26th	10 am	Tara Hill Trail: Guided 2 hour walk - moderate grade, great views, accompanied by tales both tall and true. Meet at Church car park in Tara Hill village.
	2 pm	Oulart Hill Equinox Walk. Meeting point: The Trading Post Car Park on the R741 - 2.5 hour walk - moderate grade. Featuring tales of 1798 and the European Enlightenment along the way.
	4.30 pm	Threshing Exhibition on route to Oulart Hill. Take a breather and enjoy this traditional harvest activity before you continue to the top.
	5.30 pm	You've reached Tulach a' tSolais and before the Equinox begins, relax, enjoy our al fresco stew and listen to traditional music in this magical venue.
	6.30 - 7.05 pm	Equinox - Experience the Autumnal Equinox in the unique setting of Tulach a' tSolais - a monument situated on the hilltop and dedicated to 1798 in its particular context of the European Enlightenment. Don't worry - we'll transport you back to your car.
	8 pm	Bygone Days House of Stories , in the original medieval village of Oulart. A mix of stories and music by the fireside in a 300-year-old farmhouse.
Sunday, Sept 27th	11 am 	Foraging walk on Kilanerin Trail led by Mary White, Blackstairs Eco Trails, followed by cookery demonstration. Meet 11am at Kilanerin Community Hall.
